I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Erik Gosselin, who worked as a Maintenance Assistant at our hotel. During his time with us, Erik consistently demonstrated dedication, versatility, and a strong work ethic that made him an invaluable part of our team.

Erik approached his maintenance responsibilities with professionalism and care, showing a keen ability to quickly learn the systems and equipment essential to our operation. Whether it involved diagnosing mechanical issues, assisting with preventive maintenance, or responding swiftly to guest room concerns, Erik was thorough, reliable, and solution-oriented. His ability to analyze problems and utilize the appropriate tools or resources to resolve them was consistently impressive.

What truly set Erik apart, however, was his willingness to assist across multiple departments whenever needed. He readily took on houseman duties, ensuring that common areas were clean, well-maintained, and welcoming for guests. He also helped with stocking and setting up breakfast areas, contributing to a smooth and efficient morning service. Erik was always eager to lend a hand, and he approached every task with a positive attitude and attention to detail.

His flexibility, combined with a strong sense of responsibility, made him a go-to team member

I highly recommend Erik Gosselin for any position that values hard work, adaptability, and a can-do attitude. He would be a tremendous asset to any team.
